Cecilia Moscatelli

Submitted by Jing Liu

Cecilia is an exemplary student who demonstrates success across multiple areas. As an international student, Cecilia has embodied the growth and transformation that is possible through a study abroad experience. By challenging herself and utilizing resources available across campus, she has maintained an impressive GPA and holds leadership roles in several student organizations. As a co-lead in the International Student Ambassadors Program this year, Cecilia has gone above and beyond in conducting weekly meetings, organizing campus activities, and inspiring her fellow Ambassadors. Her responsible nature and pleasant personality made working with her a tremendously positive experience!
